2. During the past week numerous discussions have been held with Mr. Sherman Kent, AD/ONE, about his visual aid to be used at the next Orientation program. Since this is the first time Mr. Kent has given the presentation on Coordination of Intelligence, it was necessary to devise a visual aid that would augment his approach to this fairly elusive subject.
3. In addition to preparing the new visual aid for Mr. Kent, Graphics, ORR, is also preparing a new visual aid to reflect the changes in the Soviet Intelligence System to accompany [redacted] s presentation of this subject at the next Orientation Course. With [redacted] concurrence this new chart will have a greater impact with the use of more interesting graphic presentation techniques than was previously possible with an organizational type chart.

III. SPECIAL

1. On Tuesday, 21 July, the Chief, OB/D, participated in the DD/I briefing of Gen. Graves B. Erskine, Special Assistant to the Secretary of Defense, Special Operations. By opening Gen. The informal atmosphere that was maintained during this briefing contributed much toward making this one of the most successful briefings recently provided for senior personnel.
